Yardmasters Won't Leave Their Work

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 19.—National headquarters here of the railroad yardmasters' association of America, with a membership of more than 8,000 throughout the country, today sent out notices to its members to remain at work performing their usual duties in the event of a railroad workers' strike.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—The first of a series of conferences in Chicago at which representatives of all factions in the railroad strike situation may decide the outcome of the strike call issued by the Big Four brotherhoods for Oct. 30, began here today to continue over the week-end. These group meetings are scheduled:

Executives of the shopmen, maintenance of way workers, clerks, telegraphers and others meeting today, tomorrow, Friday and Sunday to decide their attitude toward the announced strike of the train service employees, with indications of a final decision at a joint conference Sunday.

Brotherhood leaders are on their way here to hear the government's attitude toward the railroad labor tomorrow.

Railroad executives of the central division meet Friday in Chicago to discuss all phases of the strike situation, while executives of other divisions meet simultaneously in their own regions.

May Propose Rate Cuts.
Freight rate reductions approximately equivalent to the 12 per cent wage reduction in wages ordered last July 1 by the railroad labor board, were indicated as the probable basis suggestion the labor board will propose, with the backing of the administration, to avert the strike.

"I understand," Commissioner Ben W. Hooper, a member of the "public" group of the labor board said, "that the Interstate Commerce Commission has a number of important rate reduction cases on hand, on which it will act immediately. That will give us something to work on."

The board's policy, as outlined by Commissioner Hooper, would propose to the brotherhood chiefs immediate suspension of the strike order on their part, and their influence in preventing other walk-outs, while the executives would be asked to concede the withdrawal of the proposed request for further wage cuts and grant an immediate reduction of freight rates.

Farm Bureau Acts.
President J. R. Howard of the Farm Bureau Federation today had on file before the Interstate Commerce Commission here a petition for a 1 to 20 per cent freight rate in reduction on necessities of life and at the same time he telegraphed union leaders and railroad executives urging them to join him in a conference here.

Failure of the brotherhood chiefs to join a strike agreement with the eleven other railroad unions has made uncertain the outcome of their strike conferences here beginning today.

Referendum votes have authorized the leaders of the maintenance of way men and shopmen, who meet here today and tomorrow, to call a strike at their discretion but shopcraft leaders have summoned their executive council and executives of the maintenance of way union have called general chairmen of their twelve divisions. Membership of these two and others of the eleven organizations which have not issued strike notices number 1,500,000 as compared with half a million in the train service group now under instructions for sectional walk-outs beginning, Oct. 30.

Officials of the telegraphers have scheduled a meeting here Friday and clerks Sunday. No definite decision, leaders of these eleven unions indicated, will be made before the end of the week.

Troops May Be Used.
While prospects for settlement of the strike were growing brighter, army officials, it is understood, were making

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 19.—Orders from the commander of the Eighth Army Corps Area, Ft. Sam Houston, were received at Ft. Bliss today calling for an army survey to ascertain the names and experience of all service men who have had railroad experience, with the view of using them on railroads if there is a strike.

Labor Board Given Full Power to Act

Washington, Oct. 19.—The railroad labor board will be given the full support of federal authority in its endeavor to avert the national railroad strike, and will be expected through the result, to justify its creation.

The above summary of the strike situation was given in official circles before President Harding, accompanied by several members of his cabinet left the capital for Yorktown, Va., to participate today in celebration of "Yorktown Day."

Small Refuses to Save Wife Slayers

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Springfield, Ill., Oct. 19.—Gov. Len Small today refused to save two wife murderers from the gallows. Acting on recommendation of the state board of pardons and paroles, he declined to set aside the death sentence of John Christman, negro, Champaign, and Frank Legrenzi Italian, Chicago. They will both hang Friday, Oct. 21.

Trial judges in both cases refused to request the board of pardons to ask clemency, expressing the opinion that the penalty was provided by law, and the condemned men deserved the punishment.

The supreme court refused to hear Legrenzi's case and that of Christmas failed to reach the higher court because of lack of funds. Friends of the condemned negro attempted to raise an appeal fund, but failed. It would have cost about $400.

Moth men killed their wives in fits of jealousy, Christmas while taking his wife back home from her mother, and Legrenzi, after his wife had refused to return. Legrenzi and his wife had been students together in Moody Bible Institute before their marriage.

SIX NURSES ARE POISONED, FUDGE SENT THRU MAIL

'Ardent Admirer' Sent Homemade Candy to Austrian Girl.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Oct. 19.—An exhaustive search for the sender of a box of poisoned candy, responsible for the critical illness of six nurses at the West End Hospital was being conducted today by postoffice inspectors.

The box came through the mail addressed to Miss Helen Rosenfeld, a 17-year-old student nurse. It contained homemade "fudge," analysis of which by Dr. H. D. Valin, laboratory expert of the institution, was said to show that the supposedly deadly poison permeated all of the candy.

Miss Rosenfeld came to America nine months ago from Austria and has been a student nurse in the hospital since that time. In the candy box was a typewritten note bearing the following inscription:

"From a patient who was an ardent admirer. This candy was faithfully made."

The girl invited six other nurses to share the candy with her and within a few minutes all of them became ill.

One of the theories advanced by the postal authorities is that instead of a patient some jealous suitor sent the box to Miss Rosenfeld.

Dr. Breakstone, an attaché of the hospital, under whose supervision Miss Rosenfeld worked, said that he had no complaints of her services. It was on this assertion the authorities based the jealousy theory.

Ashton Man Drops Dead on Highway

(Special to the Telegraph)
Ashton, Ill., Oct. 19.—Wesley Gilbert, aged about 60, well known in this vicinity, dropped dead on the highway northwest of Ashton this morning while driving cattle. Apoplexy is thought to have been the cause of death. Mr. Gilbert, who had just returned Sunday from an extended visit in Savanna, had not been in good health for some time, but his ailment was not considered serious. He survived by three sons, Paul, with whom he made his home six miles northwest of this city, and two other boys in the west. His wife, Mrs. Mary Evans Gilbert passed away about two weeks ago.

Johnson and others. The panel was practically exhausted before the body was completed, the last member of the panel being accepted by both sides. Judge Edwards discharged the remainder of the panel.

Testimony in the will case was started this afternoon with a field of about 150 witnesses to testify before the jury. Attorneys C. F. Preston of Law and H. A. Brooks of this city are appearing for the plaintiff and E. H. Brewster and Henry Dixon for the defense. The case will doubtless require the remainder of the week.

PEACEFUL RELATIONS BETWEEN BRITAIN, U. S. FOREVER, PLEDGED

President Harding Makes Pronouncement at Yorktown Today.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Yorktown, Va., Oct. 19.—A doctrine of enduring friendship between the United States and Great Britain was pronounced by President Harding today at a ceremony commemorating the final surrender of the British expeditionary forces here to the revolutionary army of Washington.

Surrounded by high officials of his administration, and standing in sight of the spot where Cornwallis laid down his sword in 1781, the President declared, in deliberately chosen words, a sentiment of peaceful relationship between the two great English-speaking nations for all time to come. That either should ever again lift the sword against the other, he said, must be "unthinkable."

"In the trusteeship of preserving civilization," he continued, "we were naturally arrayed together, and the convictions of a civilization worthy of that costly preservation will exalt peace and warn against conflict for all time to come."

Four members of the cabinet, including the secretary of state, were in the company of officials who heard the pronouncement, and participated in the anniversary demonstration. Other distinguished guests included prominent members of the diplomatic corps at Washington.

In the course of his prepared address, the President also took occasion to renew the nation's pledge of participation in the broader affairs of the world and declared his belief that the time had come for "essential co-operation," among nations generally, for the betterment of the world.

"We must not claim for the New World," Mr. Harding said, "certainly not for our colonies alone, all the liberal thought of a century and a half ago. There were liberal views and attending sympathy in England and a passionate devotion to more liberal tendencies in France. The triumph of freedom in the American colonies greatly strengthened liberal views in the world. Inevitably, this liberal public opinion, deliberate and grown dominant, brought Great Britain and America to a policy of accommodation and pacific adjustment for all our difficulties. There has been honorable and unbroken peace for more than a century, we came to common sacrifice and consanguineous association in the World War, and a future breach of our peaceful and friendly relations is unthinkable. In the trusteeship of preserving civilization we were naturally arrayed together and the convictions of a civilization worthy of that costly preservation will exalt peace and warn against conflict of all time to come."

Conviction of Purposes.
"Reflecting today on the inevitableness of our participation, on our ties of friendship and fellowship, and approving anew the way the world—God's good world—must share the aspirations to realize the noblest ideals for mankind, there is a fresh hungering for understanding, a new call for co-operation, a clear conviction of purposes and devotions and loyalties not limited to sovereignties nor national boundaries."

"As the fortunate successful citizen is both inspiration and example to the community of his growth, so must the fortunate and successful nations help the world to the higher and nobler levels of accomplishment. Here at Yorktown, was sealed the charter of the new and free America, but in the charter was written the national liberalism of the maturing eighteenth century crying out from both continents."

"Shall mankind, then, go on yet for generations, for centuries knowing but refusing to be guided by those truths? Not if conscience and reason are properly asserted. I believe the time is come when there must be recognition of essential co-operation among nations, devoted each of them in its own peculiar national way, to the common good, the progress, the advance of all humankind. Let us hope that we stand at the dawn of a new day, in which nations shall be stronger for contribution to the world's betterment, because each will feel the assurance of common purpose and united aspiration, and the security of a common devotion to the ends of peace and civilization."

300 AT SUPPER.

The community chicken pie supper given at the St. James church in Natchua last night was well attended and as usual a splendid supper was served. The ladies served nearly 300 persons. Many from Dixon attended the supper.

ITALY'S MAN OF DESTINY GIVEN NOISY WELCOME

Gen. Diaz Arrives in U. S. to Attend Le- gion Convention.

BULLETIN.
By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, Oct. 19.—General Armando Diaz, commander of the Italian armies toward the end of the World War, on his way to attend the convention of the American Legion at Kansas City, landed at Battery Park shortly before noon. He was driven to City Hall to receive the city's freedom, as whistles of harbor craft shrieked a noisy welcome. Crowds cheered him along the route to the Hall.

General Diaz plainly was astonished at the warmth of the greeting.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, Oct. 19.—A thunderous welcome to General Armando Diaz, Italy's "man of destiny," is planned for today. Destroyers and seaplanes journeyed down the harbor to greet the Giuseppe Verdi, bringing to these shores the man who commanded the armies of Italy during the World War and who has come to join the American buddies at their Legion's convention in Kansas City.

Army and navy might pay their salute with roaring cannon, but New York's Little Italy insisted on greeting its hero in its own way. On the tip of Manhattan Island they took their stand, facing the Statue of Liberty, to shout their "Bravos!" when their idol stepped ashore.

But while the bulk of the welcoming army held its position at the Battery, the vanguard embarked on a municipal ferry, to founder down the bay in the swift destroyers to bear greetings to the general even before he set foot on the New World.

Italy's picturesque military leader revealed his genius after the Caporetto disaster on the Isonzo front in October, 1917, in which 200,000 Italian soldiers and 700 guns were captured by the Austro-Germans.

Under the leadership of General Diaz, the tottering morale of the Italian army speedily recovered.

He was born in Naples 60 years ago and was a student of war from childhood, his forbears having fought in the Napoleonic wars.

Kick to Council on Location Cow Testing Station

A petition bearing the signatures of 168 residents of Dementown and the west end of the city was presented at the regular weekly meeting of the city council last evening, objecting to the location of the cattle testing station in that part of the city. The council took no action upon the matter.

Semi-monthly bills in the amount of $1,193.93 were read and allowed. The council concurred in the appointment of Harry Jones as a member of the police department to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Joe Miller.

The council received three bids on the proposed construction of a sewer on Assembly Place and East Morgan street. Three contractors submitted bids as follows: Fred Leake, Amboy, $5,649.91; A. E. and G. D. Pelton, Dixon, $5,407.93, and Charles Atkinson of this city, $4,769.81. The bids were placed on file in the office of Mayor Mark D. Smith, open to public inspection until Friday morning at 8 o'clock when the contract will be awarded.

Indictment Against Lawrence Dismissed

John Lawrence, negro, indicted by the special grand jury in August on a charge of larceny, was liberated from the county jail and left for Peoria this morning. On motion of State's Attorney Mark C. Keller, the charge against Lawrence was nolle prosequi by Judge Harry Edwards.

Lawrence was suspected of having stolen the money which William H. Coffey had won in the crap game operated by John "Tapout" Laster in the Sam Strains boat house east of the city on August 1, he being in the place at the time with several other negroes.

Absent-Mindedness of Man Saves $4,000

DIXON COW TESTING PLANT LOCATED OUT OF CITY BY BOARD

Henry Hey Farm Has Been Selected as Site for Plant.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce held last evening in the Secretary's office, the cow testing committee of which John Erwin is chairman, submitted a report on their activities and recommended the locating of the new cow testing plant on the Henry Hey farm. The board accepted the report and the new location was finally decided on for the new plant.

The Hay farmhouse and part of the present barn will be used and a new building constructed 36x200 feet, sealed bids for which are advertised in this paper.

Approved New Location.
This new location outside the city limits will meet with approval of many. Mr. Hey's farm house is equipped with electric lights and good water in abundance is on the place. This building will be used by the supervisor, herdman and milkers as home and clubhouse.

President Attends Yorktown Festival

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Yorktown, Va., Oct. 19.—President and Mrs. Harding were guests of honor today at the celebrations marking the 140th anniversary of the surrender of Lord Cornwallis to the Colonials under Washington and Lafayette.

The presidential party arrived from the capital after an overnight trip on the Mayflower, which cost anchor in a cove which, through many summer weeks, 140 years ago, reflected the grim ports of the anchored French fleet, as it lay watching the beleaguered British army.

Mr. Harding's address, the feature of the day's program, was delivered at the foot of the Yorktown monument, erected in 1881. At its conclusion he proceeded to Williamsburg, to participate in the installation of Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, as president of the college of William and Mary. Since the original celebration of Yorktown Day, students of the college have made it an annual holiday, journeying to this place in a body to join in the ceremonies.

From Williamsburg, President Harding plans to go to Jamestown, the site of the original white settlement on the North American continent. The Mayflower will await the party here, probably casting off for the return to Washington this evening.

State Bank, North Dakota, is Enjoined By District Court

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Jamestown, N. D., Oct. 19.—Members of the state industrial commission, several other state officials and a bonding company are cited to appear in the Stutsman county district court here on Nov. 3, to show cause why a temporary injunction restricting the bank of North Dakota, a state-owned institution, from receiving deposits of private and public funds, should not be made permanent.

The temporary injunction was granted here late yesterday, on petition of a number of taxpayers. It was served on Governor Lynn J. Fraser, one of the defendants, just after he had finished making a speech here last night.

The order declares the bank of North Dakota "is insolvent" and prohibits everyone connected with it from interfering from any person the court may appoint to take charge. Among reasons cited in the order are that the "state officials have failed and refused to properly perform their duty."

Attorney F. J. Bowman of Sterling was transacting business at the court house Tuesday afternoon.

HOME OF U. S. AMBASSADOR IS BOMBED TODAY

M. T. Herrick Had Narrow Escape from Assassination.

Paris, Oct. 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—A bomb exploded today in the house of Myron T. Herrick, the American ambassador, seriously injuring the valet who opened the package containing it.

The room in which the explosion occurred was wrecked. Ambassador Herrick arrived at the house two minutes after the bomb blew up.

Addressed to Herrick.
The bomb was in a carefully made package, addressed personally to the ambassador, who, it appears, might well have opened it himself, as it seemed to be a gift designed for him.

The ambassador's valet, however, saw the package and opened it to save Mr. Herrick the trouble.

Immediately after the explosion Ambassador Herrick went to the Hotel Crillon, where General Pershing is stopping. The prefect of police joined the general and the ambassador there and this evening they were conferring on the case, while the entire detective service of Paris was at work in an attempt to trace the origin of the bomb.

Considerable damage was done to the ambassador's residence, outside the room where the explosion occurred as well as within it.

THREATENING LETTERS.

Paris, Oct. 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—Threats to tear down the American flag over the American embassy here are contained in many letters which have been received at the embassy in the last few days, protesting against the conviction in the United States of Nicolai Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, two Italians, for the murder of Frederick A. Parmenter, paymaster of a shoe manufacturing establishment at Braintree, Mass. In all, between 300 and 400 letters of protest have been received, at the rate of more than 100 a day.

There have been numerous demonstrations by radical elements in Italy over this case, and the communist newspapers here in Paris have taken up the campaign, urging their followers to protest to the embassy and announcing a mass meeting for Friday. It is reported an attempt to demonstrate in front of the embassy is being planned to follow this meeting.

No action towards sentencing the prisoners in the Braintree case has as yet been taken by the Massachusetts courts, sentences having been temporarily stayed and the times for filing exceptions taken by the defense with a view to an appeal having been extended to November 1 at the time of their conviction at Dedham last July.

A pamphlet attacking American justice and the American government was circulated widely in Paris streets yesterday and a copy of the pamphlet was delivered at the embassy today.

Look in Direction for Robbers of Mendota Store Early Today

Chief Van Bibber this morning received a telephone message from Chief Beckett of the Mendota police department, asking that the local officers aid in trying to locate thieves who operated in that city early this morning. Two strangers entered a clothing store in the business section of Mendota, took two suit cases and filled these with selected clothing. They then stripped off their own clothing and attired themselves completely from the stock.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

Dwight Van Vleet alias Roy McClaren was taken in custody by the Dixon police this morning on information received from Rockford. Chief Bargen of the Rockford department requested that the Dixon officers arrest the man, a state warrant charging larceny having been sworn out in that city. Rockford authorities are expected to arrive this afternoon for the prisoner.

William Erbes went to Ohio and Walnut this morning to spend the day visiting friends.

But Two Ballots Re- quired to Reach a Verdict.

John "Tapout" Laster was found not guilty of the murder of William H. Coffey, Polo veteran of the World War, last evening at 7:40 by the jury in the circuit court. The jury had been locked in their room for deliberation of about 30 minutes in length, when they made known to Sheriff Schoenholtz that they were ready to report. Several persons who had watched the progress in the case daily, were in the court room and corridor, when the jury, tired after eight days of listening to testimony and argument, filed before the judge's bench.

Deputies S. O. Argaves and John Krug who have guarded Laster throughout the trial, entered with the prisoner and the verdict was read. Laster, the accused, maintained the same stolid, indifferent action which he held throughout the progress of the trial. When the verdict had been read he looked about the court room and as he arose to his feet, thanked the jury for the verdict which had cleared out the murder charge against him.

Charged with Perjury.

A bench warrant, charging Laster with perjury, was served after he had in a humble manner expressed his thanks to the jury, and he was taken back to his cell in the county jail, to await further action. It was indicated that the jury in their short deliberation, cast but two ballots, the first being 11 to 1 for acquittal and the second being unanimous for lifting the charge of murder from the prisoner's record.

The trial established a record in this city as being the longest murder trial on record. Six and one-half days were required to bring before the jury the testimony of witnesses for state and defense. A day and a half were required in which to make the arguments to the jury.

Yesterday, the court room accommodated a capacity crowd, every seat being filled with those who could not be accommodated crowded in the doorways and stood in the corridor listening to the closing arguments before the body of men who were to decide the fate of the alleged keeper of a notorious gambling resort, charged with the murder of a former Dixon ex-soldier. Both this morning and afternoon sessions attracted large crowds.

Long Defense Argument.

In the morning at the opening of the court, Attorney H. A. Brooks who was assisting Attorney McNemar of Peoria in the defense of Laster's life, closed his argument to be followed by the Peoria attorney, who required more than three hours in his plea for his client. Attorney McNemar opened his argument at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, closing at 3:30 in the afternoon. He assailed the testimony of Carroll Cushman throughout his argument and set forth the possibility of the shooting being accidental. He argued that in the struggle in which Laster held Coffey's hand that the 22 caliber automatic pistol fell to the floor and was discharged, the bullet which caused the death of the young soldier being from his own gun.

Throughout the argument he flourished the pistol purported to have been the property of the deceased, before the jury box, dropping it upon the floor of the court room to demonstrate the possibility of the revolver exploding in this manner and causing the wound which proved mortal to William Coffey. The Peoria attorney, although ill and suffering from a high fever and severe cold, made a strong plea for his client in closing his argument.

"Where Is Laster's Gun?"

Attorney John P. Devine, who is assisting State's Attorney Mark Keller, made the closing argument, consuming but 40 minutes of the jury's time. He answered strongly the statement made by the defense and put forth the argument that the absence of Laster's gun, which it was charged he had held against Coffey, was evidence of his guilt.

Juryman William Clink of Lee Center was taken ill at 4:45 yesterday afternoon while Judge Harry Edwards was reading the instructions to the jury, and the entire body was excused for a recess, returning to the court room at 5:20. Judge Edwards then continued with the instructions, 46 in number, and requiring more than half an hour for their reading.

At 5:45 the court instructed the circuit clerk to swear deputies to guard the jury. Sheriff Schoenholtz and Deputies Phillips and Young being sworn. The jury were presented with the various exhibits and retired shortly before 6 o'clock. They were taken out for supper and a short walk for exercise, returning about 7:15 to consider their verdict.

Today's Market Report

Grains on Advance, Then Decline Today

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Wheat prices developed considerable strength today, pressure being much less in demand than during the two days preceding. Profit taking on the part of recent short sellers helped the market to rally. Besides, the opinion was popular that a reaction was to be expected after the drastic decline which had taken place of late. Opening quotations which ranged from 4c lower to 1 1/2c advance, with Dec. 1.05 to 1.05 and May 1.10 to 1.11, were followed by a decided upturn all around.

Subsequently, support was lacking and the market declined to new low record prices for the season. Lloyd George's speech on unemployment was a bearish factor. The close was heavy, 1 1/2c to 2c net lower with Dec. 1.03 1/2 to 1.03 3/4, and May 1.08 1/2 to 1.08 3/4.

Corn and oats rose with wheat. Corn opened unchanged to 1/4c higher, Dec. 46 to 46 1/2, and then scored a moderate general gain.

Oats after starting unchanged to 1/4c lower, Dec. 32 1/2 to 32 1/2, went upward for all deliveries.

Scattered buying of provisions was sufficient to overcome any bearish effect of lower quotations in the hog market.

Later, the corn market declined when wheat turned downward.

The close was weak 1/2c to 3/4c net lower with Dec. 45 1/2 to 45 1/2.

Former King of Bavaria is Dead

WAR DEPT. HAS DATA ON TROOPS WITH EXPERIENCE

preparations for operating trains by federal troops.

Dispatches from San Antonio said officers of the Eighth Corps Area in the southwest, had been instructed to compile and forward to Washington lists of all officers and enlisted men with experience in twenty-six lines of railroad work.

Southwestern roads largely comprise the group under instructions to walk out the first day of the strike, and it is understood that it was the preponderance of votes favoring a strike by the brotherhoods came from that section. Sentiment among employees of eastern roads, it is understood, was much more evenly divided on the strike question, so much so that the proposed strike on the Pennsylvania and the Erie was deferred from the first day until the fourth, because of doubt among union leaders as to the response of the men to the strike order.

Army officers at Fort Sheridan, headquarters of the Sixth Corps Area, said today they had received no instructions from Washington to prepare lists of men with railroad experience, but that 1,500 men were available there for any duty.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 19.—Prior to their departure tonight for Chicago, where tomorrow they will confer with the railroad labor board in an effort to find a basis for settling the nationwide railroad strike set to begin, Oct. 30th, heads of the "Big Five" railroad transportation organizations met here today, and discussed matters that may be presented at the Chicago conference as well as those pertaining to carrying on the strike.

Those attending today's meeting were W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen; Warren S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Engineers; T. C. Cashen, president of the Switchmen's Union of North America; and E. P. Curtis, representing L. E. Sheppard, president of the Order of Railway Conductors.

It was the first meeting of the union organizations heads since authorizing the strike in Chicago last Saturday.

While the "Big Five" leaders have maintained almost unbroken silence in regard to the purposes of the conference with the labor board and its possible results, it is known they are hopeful that some basis of settlement which can be accepted by both themselves and the railroad executives will be evolved and paralysis of the nation's transportation system averted.

Chicago Man Says Since Taking Tanlac He Knows Why So Many People Are Praising It.

"Tanlac has proven to be such a fine thing for me," said Harris Greenberg, 3256 North Cicero Ave., Chicago, Ill., a well known Optometrist, "that I am glad to relate my experience with it for the benefit of others. Why, the medicine has made me feel every bit of twenty years younger, and I no longer wonder that so many people are praising it."

"I had been bothered for something like ten years with a very severe case of indigestion and, I think, about all the ailments that go with it."

"Three bottles of Tanlac has certainly brought about a remarkable change in my condition. My stomach trouble, as well as all my other ailments, has disappeared now and I have so much strength and energy that I often keep on the go all day without feeling tired. In fact, Tanlac has made me feel just like I wanted to feel. It certainly is a great medicine."

Fear of Violence in Latter Town Leads to the Transfer.

Koplan, cashier of the Union State Bank at Hanover, Ill., with embezzlement of $120,000, was filed today by John Eadie, president of the Hanover Bank at Galena, Ill., where Koplan is being held in the county jail. Koplan was rushed to the Galena jail from Savanna after violence was feared following his arrest at Davis Junction.

A preliminary hearing is being arranged for Koplan who has refused to talk or discuss shortages. Pending the hearing Galena officials have refused to allow anyone to communicate with Koplan.

State Bank Examiner W. W. Callahan, who made the examination of the Union State Bank accounts, announced this morning that his examination had been completed and that the bank and books and accounts had been turned over to J. H. Speer, cashier of the Hanover State Bank.

Examiner Callahan further stated that no further irregularities other than the $120,000 already disclosed has been found.

"The bank is capitalized at $25,000," Olson said, "and I held only $5,000 worth of stock. The remainder is held by residents in Hanover."

Mr. Olson said that the closed Hanover bank carried not more than $15,000 in North Dakota paper.

NEWS FROM DEMENTTOWN

Always Fresh and Wholesome
"A LIVE TOWN OF OUR OWN"

Vital topics of conversation on the Avenue this morning were the acquittal of the Negro Laster and the proposed railroad strike.

At the Northwestern freight office, the strike was the principal discussion; at the Central freight office the negro question was thoroughly thrashed out. It is hoped that brains will be used to settle the strike matter. Striking will do no good. It is hoped that the members of the Interstate Commerce Commission will act independently in this matter and bring forth a reduction of freight and passenger rates, thus eliminating all further trouble. Men who belong to organization feel duty bound to following the orders from their heads. There are few railroad employees who, down deep in their hearts, wish to walk out, but there is that feeling of loyalty to the organization that keeps them in line.

A railroad strike will cost the country a large amount of money; business will stop, and now that winter is nearly with us, there must be considerable suffering. President Harding can settle the coming trouble, and he should use his office to do so as quickly as possible. The true American will bring no trouble to his country, but it is not the American that is to be feared in a great strike. Great problems have been settled by railroad organizations in the years gone by, and great problems will continue to be settled by organizations. Through good, clean and honest organization the people speak, and after all it is the people who are most interested.

"Bonus Clerk" Frank McConoy of the Illinois Central freight office, is on the sick list.

There is a force of Western Union men setting poles along the Central right of way in place of those blown down during the sleet storm of last winter.

Illinois Central officials have commenced improving the yard facilities south of the station. The passing track will be extended south. Large quantities of rock near Mound Flats will be removed. A contractor with a force of men arrived here this morning and work will begin at once.

Charles Dierdorff says this winter will see big hunting possibilities.

Train Master Bowen of the Northwestern was here this morning transacting business.

Did anyone see an eclipse of the moon last Sunday night? Casey says there was an eclipse, and Casey seems to be well and all right otherwise.

PHIDIAN ART CLUB MEETING.

The Phidian Art club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. S. Morris and Miss Laing at the home of Mrs. Morris.

After the business of the day was concluded, two beautiful selections on the Victrola were furnished, "Comfort Ye My People," and "Every Valley Shall Be Exalted," from The Messiah.

The Bible is to be the subject of study of the Phidians during the coming year and these majestic numbers truly furnished a fitting prelude.

The address of the afternoon was delivered by Dr. S. W. Lehman on "The Bible," and was a masterly dissertation on "The Book of Books." Dr. Lehman gave something of a forecast of the subject on the program for the coming year, and his hearers regretted that time did not permit of a more specific following of the subjects upon which he touched. Dr. Lehman is a deep student of the Bible, and his address could not but stimulate the interest in what is to come this winter in the study of the Bible for the club.

A pleasant social hour followed the club meeting with the serving of delicious refreshments, Mrs. Starin and Mrs. Lehman serving.

MAROONS LEARN TIGERS' PLAYS FROM DIAGRAM

Chicago U. Team Said to Be in Condition for Game.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—When the University of Chicago team leaves tomorrow to meet Princeton on the eastern school's grounds they will have been trained in all the plays which were used by Princeton against Annapolis last Saturday. A scout for the Maroons brought back diagrams of the Tigers' offensive play and Coach Stagg has coached the Maroons diligently in the different formations.

With two weeks rest the squad is pronounced in better shape than at any time this fall.

The big question is whether the Maroons will be able to withstand the rush of the Tigers' attack. Chicago showed up good against Northwestern, but looked "ragged" against Purdue.

It is expected that 1,000 rooters will accompany the team. These last will be headed by Arthur Cody, cheer leader of the university.

Other Big Contests.

Two of the four teams which have proven strong contenders for Big Ten honors face elimination next Saturday. Michigan will play its first Big Ten game of the season at Ann Arbor when it meets Ohio State. The Buckeyes 27-0 victory over Minnesota last Saturday showed Ohio State to be in splendid shape, despite graduation of many stars of last year.

Wisconsin, another unbeaten Big Ten aggregation will play Illinois at Urbana and while the Badgers now look the best Orange and Blue team is expected to recover from the trouncing given it last Saturday by Iowa.

The Indiana eleven will go to Minneapolis Saturday to meet Minnesota and present indications point to defeat for the Gophers. The Hoosiers have a good attack whereas Minnesota has made a weak showing in her defense.

Iowa, Purdue and Northwestern of the Big Ten teams have no games scheduled for this week-end.

Notre Dame and Nebraska will meet at South Bend in one of the leading middle west games of non-conference teams. The Notre Dame teams are confident of winning, despite their defeat by Iowa. A special train will take Notre Dame rooters from Chicago to South Bend.

Watchman Joe Mapes describes the bandit that stole four barrels of elderly wine from the jail, last night, as being of medium height, light gray $2 hat, thin scar under chin, hair parted on left side, turquoise cuff buttons, a knot in one shoe lace, a tan leather bilfold, light blue eyes and a small spot on his vest. WHAT IS A COW TESTING PLANT?

Question is Answered By Field Secretary C. M. Long

Ever since the Illinois Holstein Association decided to locate their testing plant at Dixon people have been asking the question stated above. It is a place where pure bred cows are fed and cared for in the very best possible manner and given a trial to see how much milk and butter they will produce in a year.

There are many private testing plants, but the one to be located here is the only one in existence open to the general public. The Association is sending their field secretary, C. M. Long to the various herds in the state and he is selecting the very best cows to send here for testing. There will be sixty cows here when the plant is full. Each cow will have a large pen and her individual manger and water basin. The cows will be fed and milked and their stalls will be cleaned up four times daily, at 12 noon, 6 p. m., 6 a. m. and 12 midnight. The cows will be kept clean and contented at all times. The barn will be screened like a house and disinfected and fly killer will be used daily. When weather gets extremely hot electric fans will be turned on. There will be one man to each six cows and the entire herd will be in charge of H. W. Dressel, an agricultural college graduate who formerly had charge of the university herd at Urbana and has made a large number of high records on cows. Most of the milkers will also be college graduates. They are coming for the valuable experience they will get working with the best cows in Illinois and under a skillful feeder like Mr. Dressel. Every bit of feed each cow consumes will be weighed, likewise the milk she gives. The agricultural college will keep a man here to see that these feed and milk records are as reported. He will be required to swear that he was present and saw the cow milked and the milk weighed and that the report is correct. The milkers will have to make affidavit to the correctness of this report. This is known among dairymen as A. R. O. records or Advanced Records Official. Cows that have these records are very much in demand as foundation stock. Likewise their offspring are valued highly. This makes the work profitable from the farmer's standpoint. This being the first public plant, it is being closely watched by dairymen everywhere. Several agricultural colleges, the United States Department of Agriculture and the Holstein Association of several other states have expressed their intention of sending representatives here.

INVENTORS OF COLD

Next time you eat ice cream, consider the debt you owe to Sambo Jackson, negro pastry chef in a New York tavern, who gave the world its first dish of ice cream 105 years ago.
For years, Sambo had a monopoly on the manufacture of ice cream, because he kept his process a closely guarded secret. All that is definitely known about his discovery is that it was an accident.

It might not be a bad idea to erect a monument somewhere to Sambo.
And, while about it, surround his black marble statue with effigies of the men who gave us the other things that help make summer endurable—artificial ice, lemonade, refrigerators and fans.

Ice, the gift of nature. You may think it's only recently that man learned to cut it in winter and store it away in sawdust, which, insulating, keeps out the heat and prevents thawing.

Yet as far back as the days of Nero, Roman slaves packed snow in underground pits, pounding it into ice for summer use.

Dealers in ice and packed snow
were common in France 150 years ago.

In 1799, ice cut from a pond in New York City was shipped by boat to Charleston, S. C. That was the beginning of a great ice export business.

In those days, artificial ice was not commercially practicable. Scientists had experimented for centuries to produce low temperature artificially, but the first American patent for making artificial ice was not taken out until 1834—by John Gorrie, a doctor in Apalachicola, Fla.

Charles Tellier, who died in 1913,
was the inventor of cold-storage refrigeration, without which many cities would find it very difficult to exist.

When he was 85 he said: "The advantages of poverty are over-rated.
The rich declare that poverty brings out a man's good points. Well, so it does—by the roots."

And Tellier knew what he was talking about. Despite the incalculable value of his invention to the world, he died in poverty.

Fans are ancient. All races have them. The cave man probably fanned himself in July with a dried palm leaf or a slab of bark.

Electric fans, without which you'd find summer harder to endure, were of slow evolution, many contributing.

But they were made possible by Thomas Davenport, an impoverished Vermont blacksmith, who in 1834, built the first rotary electric motor.

Lemonade, alone of the five great reliefs from summer heat, cannot be traced to any individual.

Lemons originally grew wild in India. Arabian armies transplanted them to Asia. The Crusaders carried them into Europe nearly 1000 years ago. Later, sailors brought them to America and planted them.

It has taken centuries, thousands of years, possibly millions, to put lemonade, ice cream, electric fans, artificial ice and refrigeration within the reach of all.

What new devices for making summer more endurable will be discovered in the centuries that lie ahead?

GAS FOR MOBS

It will certainly be easier to handle mobs when a method used experimentally by the Philadelphia police department is adopted generally.

Bombs of the "tear gas" variety, guaranteed to put victims out of commission for half an hour or more but not to injure them permanently, were tried on a stage mob of 200 policemen.
As the 200 rushed forward, ostensibly bent on depredation and slaughter, they were met by a shower of hand-thrown bombs, and after a gasping breath or two they all quit right there and then.

A bandit-chase was staged, and the bandits captured in sort order when a gas shell was tossed into their fleeing automobile.

A deserted house in a suburban field was occupied by "desperate criminals holding the fort against the police," and they ceased to hold it about one minute after a couple of bombs were thrown through the windows.

Here apparently, is an effective and moderately humane way to quell riots. A mob dissolved in tears by gas shells immediately ceases to be a mob, and after of gasping and weeping, its units are not likely to reassemble for a lynching or any other purpose. Under favorable conditions, it is demonstrated, an escaping criminal can be rounded up by a much safer process than shooting him up, along with the innocent bystanders.

Thus another good thing comes out of the war.

pluse, this little volume does not attempt to preach Americanism to recently arrived foreigners. It goes about its work much more understandingly. Its purpose is simply to aid the immigrant to find his way about in this strange land which is to be his new home. It tries to show him the way to avoid pitfalls and disappointments which would hinder his becoming a satisfactory and consequently a good citizen.

The pamphlet takes up simply and directly such problems as illness, logal matters, licenses, money matters,
home and domestic relations, work,
loss of baggage and good citizenship.
There is even a section headed, "If you are in trouble."

If the pamphlet is printed only in the English language and the immigrant can read only his native language, there is still the problem of making the booklet really useful to him. Even with this handicap, however, the publication of such an aid to newcomers in this country is a sign of growing understanding of the immigrant's needs and of progress in meeting them simply and directly.

Americanization would more nearly take care of itself if sympathetic and understanding aid were always given to the foreigners from the start.

CONFESSIONS OF A MOVIE STAR

CHAPTER III SAFETY RULES ARE MADE FOR ME.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
The story is told by May Scott, a girl who attained stardom in the movies when she was about sixteen.
Leading characters in the story are her guide and guardian, whom she calls Motherdear; Cissy Sheldon, a vain leading man; Nandy Anderson, a vain publicity writer, and his wife Polly, and McMaisters, a producer who believes his girl stars should have had "experiences." Then there are other actors and actresses.

GO ON WITH STORY
Reincarnation was the only word which expressed my own feeling about my success in enacting roles strange to my actual experiences in life.

"I'm so glad 'Bonded Love' turned out all right," I said, suddenly. "Cissy made it so hard for me!"

"Didn't Cissy stick to the rule?"
Motherdear's query was put in her gentlest tone. But I knew she wasn't as well poised in her mind as in her manner. She often was quite a bit worried about what was happening to her little movie star.

There certainly was a "rule." In fact, there were several special studio rules for me. Motherdear and the directors had manufactured them.
Some of them seemed ridiculous to the other girls of the company and they took the utmost pains to tell me so.

For example, if the company had to work later than the regular hour of closing the studios, the director never failed to notify Motherdear.

And then the girls would make disagreeable remarks.

Personally, I never could see why it was necessary to trouble the director.
Besides, nobody bothered about how or when the other girls went home. I had my own car and my chauffeur and certainly a profession isn't like society. A girl in any business has to get along as best she can without a chaperon.

It seemed to me that if I were old enough to earn a salary on which I had to pay a surtax, I was plenty old enough to take care of myself anywhere.

When I asked Motherdear why this studio rule applied only to me, she answered:
"Demaison and I think it best,
dear!"

If I had to work until midnight, as movie stars sometimes do, Mother-dear always came to the studios to take me home.

And if there was a little supper in honor of somebody's birthday, I always had to refuse my invitation.

Once McMaisters, the producer, tried to induce Motherdear to break the rule in his favor. He said that I ought not to be cooped up so—that experiences like some other movie stars had would push me upward faster.

Motherdear got awfully flushed while McMaister talked, especially when he told her he would take care of me at the party!

She took me straight home, and she was always a little queer about Mc-Maisters after that, but she never would tell me why.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

"The first thing to do, children," said Cap'n Pennywhistle to the Twins as he folded up the Fairy Queen's letter, "is to find the rainbow. When you discover where the end of it is, look there for a bag of gold that the gnomes have hidden."

With that he turned Curly's head—
his sea-horse steed, you know—back to the place by the sea weed grove
where he watched the traffic.

Nancy and Nick looked after him thoughtfully. One would have thought

"That's the rainbow, there! It's running away!"

that he was telling them how to find the corner grocery to buy a lolly-pop, instead of hunting bags of gold at the foot of rainbows. As though rainbows and gold-bags were the most everyday things in the world! Not that they were discouraged—not a bit of it, only it was one more thing that was queer about the Land of the Wiggles. Everything was most amazing. Nick had a book at home called "Davey Jones' Locker" that his Daddy read him at night, all about the ocean and ocean

ful object stopped suddenly and turned around, and for the first time the children noticed that it had two bright eyes. Then it spoke, "For goodness sake, what are you two creatures tagging after me for?" It snapped, most unmanly.

"Are—aren't you the rainbow?"
faltered Nancy.

"Rainbow?" It snapped. "What's that? I'm Mr. Ribbon-Fish!"

WHEN A WOMAN TELLS

By RUTH AGNES ABELING

CHAPTER LXXXVIII—GRACE, TOO, FINDS HAPPINESS.

From the church we went straight to the Ames home.

John and Lila were out in the rose garden, walking arm in arm.

"Come on," Tom called, "and eat a wedding dinner with us."

Lila looked up, and then started for the roadster on a run. John followed.
"You can't mean it? Without saying a word to us?" Lila was kissing me and while I climbed out of the roadster into her arms, Tom and John were gripping each other's hands and grinning.

"It's a wedding party four square,
I think—so we want you folks to go along," Tom said.

"Trot up and get your wraps, Lila—
we can't miss this," John laughed.
So Lila and I hurried upstairs, each of us wildly happy.

I left directions with the housekeeper for the forwarding of my trunk and then went into my room for a last look.

There on the dressing table lay an envelope.

"Miss Helga Sorenson" was written in a bold hand on the outside. Hastily I opened it, and looked at the signature. It was from Grace.

"Dear Miss Sorenson," it began,
"there are just these few things left that I want to clear up. It was I who saw in the garden that night when you looked from your window—but it wasn't Tom Bradford. Strange how much alike they are, isn't it? The man I was with was Frank LeLan!"

"He came back," Tom arranged that I meet him one afternoon at his office when I thought I had gone there on business for Mrs. Ames. So everything is all right now! For you and me—GRACE DELANE.

It seemed my cup was running over.
All that had troubled me was now clear, and I had no need to doubt.

I was happy to see the signature, for somehow its bold lines seemed to say that it had a perfect right to be,
and I felt that Grace, too, had visited a clergyman that morning.

"DON'T FORGET"

BY DR. WM. E. BARTON.

When I was a small boy, I had great joy visiting in the home of an uncle who lived a mile and a half from the little village where I was born. My father's diary shows that I walked this distance alone, in an emergency, and carried a message announcing the death of my grandfather, when I was three months less than four years old.

His diary records that it was necessary to send me if the word was to be sent, because my father and other members had to go where the dying man was, which was in an opposite direction, and that I walked the distance, three miles for the round trip,
and was not greatly fatigued.

I made the journey often after that,
and always enjoyed it. I was there on a day when I may have been ten years old, and was to return next day when some great event, thrashing or stacking, or something, was in prospect, and my uncle told me to go to the hardware store and bring him out two pounds of nails.

"Do you mean," he demanded, "that you intend to forget to do what I ask you to do?"

"No," I replied, but I sometimes forget. Everybody does, sometimes!"

Said he, "If you forget to bring those nails, you may forget to come."

I remembered both things. I was there, with the nails.

That incident did me a lot of good.
It set me to thinking that very much of my forgetting had been sheer carelessness. I knew as soon as I stopped to think of it that there was no need of my forgetting. And I resolved to remember what ought to be remembered.

I am far from claiming that I do not sometimes forget. I am not pro-ple's imitation. But I tell the story because I think it has a value.

careless.

is needless.

SELF - PRESERVATION

the right to seek health was man's first law !

And no legal restriction which would to any degree limit or restrict the method of curing man's ills can ever endure. The privilege to regain one's health thru Chiropractic is a natural inheritance.

How the Illinois Supreme Court Tendered Legal Freedom to the New Profession:

Springfield, Ill., June 22, 1921.—The Medical Practice Act of Illinois was declared unconstitutional today by the Supreme Court as an unjust discrimination against one class of physicians. This action will affect Chiropractors and all drugless healers who have heretofore been held guilty in lower courts for practicing medicine without a license.

Verdict Was Unanimous.

There is little hope by the sponsors of the Medical Practice Act that it will be saved as the opinion of the Supreme Court was concurred in by the full membership of the bench. The law prepared with great care originally, and which at one time provided for an examination of Chiropractors and other drugless doctors, was held unconstitutional evidently because of a revision in 1917, which revision required non-medical practitioners to pursue a course of study equivalent to that of medical doctors, in addition to the study necessary in their own schools.

Score after score of "miracle" recoveries; making the blind see, the deaf hear, the lame walk, the dumb speak; these are but a few of Chiropractic's achievement which of late have gained public prominence. From Maine to California, Washington to Florida has come news of newer cures, rectified invalids, re-born human structures.

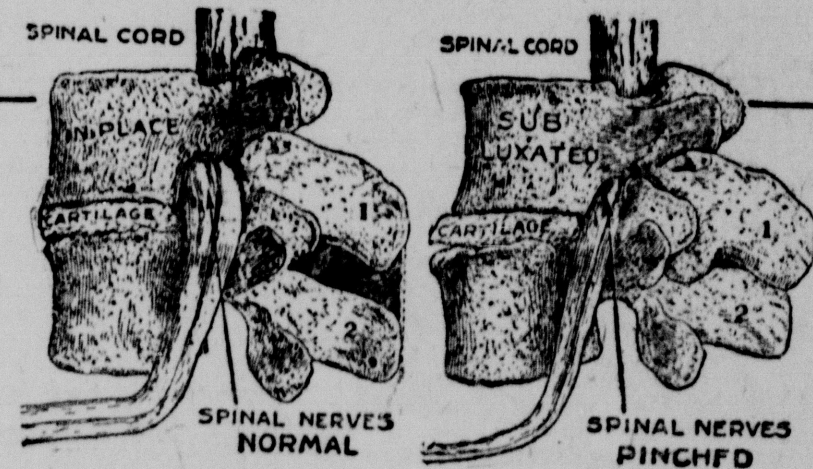

And the result? More confidence and greater interest in Chiropractic by the American public, official recognition of this science by leading scholars and scientists and ultimate legal protection and encouragement before the various commonwealth justice courts.

What Is Chiropractic?

HOW few of us have a definite idea of just what Chiropractic is! Hardly one man in a hundred has been well informed on how this science operates and what success it is recording.

Many men, women and children fail to enjoy all the health Nature intended for them. Multitudes have tried one doctor after another, absorbed many and diversified drugs. Some have even experienced the trials and dangers of surgery without success. Yet a Chiropractic Doctor has never been consulted!

Chiropractic is based on the fact that disease results from pressure upon the nerves, and that the spine being in a position to impinge the nerves controls the health of the body. Each illustration herewith pictures two vertebrae or bony segments which are a part of the entire series that make up the spine. Spinal nerves which connect to the spinal cord pass thru an opening between the bony segments as shown.

Normally these openings (as shown in the first illustration) are of ample size to accommodate the nerves without hindrance. Should, however, somebody experience a fall, a twist or extreme jar, a vertebrae (as shown in the second illustration) may assume an unnatural position called subluxation, and as a result the nerve opening is reduced in size, after which the organ supplied by this particular nerve becomes deficient in activity.

The character of the ailment depends upon the class of nerve fibre involved. If a motive nerve is impinged the result is muscular weakness. If a sensory nerve is impinged the result is pains or paralysis.

Chiropractic adjustment therefore includes an analysis of the spine to determine the point of subluxation after which the subluxated vertebrae is gradually adjusted back to its normal position. The nerve trunks again functioning as intended, Nature soon corrects the condition causing the disease to be eliminated.

Chiropractic has brought health to thousands of others and can do the same for you

Laundry Queen ELECTRIC WASHER

Of all the tasks that are supposed to belong to women, the family washing is the hardest and most disagreeable. It has ruined health, delicate hands and disposition and given the second day of the week the unpleasant sobriquet, "Blue Monday."

But to any home where there is electricity, the Laundry Queen Electric Washer brings deliverance from the drudgery of old fashioned washing. It puts the washboard and the hand wringer in the obsolete class with crocheted tiddles and wax flowers.

It carries through all the real work of washing and makes high-priced, haughty help an unnecessary luxury.

The Laundry Queen Electric Washer is so much more capable in many ways than human hands—so much more considerate of clothes—you surely will be interested in its various features.

It does more than wash. It wrings, rinses and blues the clothes, too. If you'll follow through the pages you'll understand just how it does so many things so well.

SAYS SEX FILMS ARE ROTTEN

Movies and their effects on public morals are discussed for the Telegraph in three articles written by Rev. Billy Sunday, the famous evangelist. This is the second.

BY REV. BILLY SUNDAY.

Famous American Evangelist.

I think the sex movie is the severest indictment that can be brought against the movie today. And I do not doubt that constant work on pictures of that sort is in part responsible for alleged looseness in the lives of some movie people.

There is no excuse for the immoral movie, and the immoral actor and actress should be fired off every "lot" in Hollywood. I condemned the Arbutuck drunken, jazz, pajama-clad jamboree from start to finish. Commenting on the evidence in the paper I said I did not see how he could be convicted of murder no matter what other crime he might be guilty of. I have made no defense of Arbutuck in public, in private or in interviews. He has suffered severe punishment in his fall from a position of popularity and admiration, and his is a striking example of the fact that no matter how popular or prominent a man is he can not defy public morals and get away with it.

Attitude of Public Proper.

The fact that the American public vigorously criticized Patty, a popular favorite, for his part in the stenchful affair, is one of the encouraging signs of the times and one that the movie heads should pay heed to.

Many of the same emotions and impulses that corrupt me and women give full rein to also stir the hearts of decent folk. The nation is as clean as it is because most of its citizens are men and women who practice self-restraint and obey the commandments of God. The conventions of society and the fear of public opinion are responsible in others.

But nothing more true was ever spoken than that vice seen too often becomes a familiar face and finally a thing that we embrace. In this lies the condemnation of the sex movie and all allied cussedness in some of the pictures thrown on the screen and in plays acted.

Witness Evils Without Bush.

Girls in their teens under ordinary circumstances abhor the loose lewd woman. Yet when immorality and suggestiveness is flaunted in their faces day after day on the screen or on the stage their shame is dissipated and they witness in pictures without a blush things there is one chance in townships by nine farmer solicitors, some of whom have been able to work only part time.

Two organizers began work this week in McLean county and in the first two days signed 112 farmers.

173,987 Illinois Folks Can't Write

Washington, Oct. 18.—There were 173,987 persons in the state of Illinois in 1920, who were unable to write in any language and were classed as illiterates, in a census bureau report for that year made public today.

Because of the great preponderance of those illiterates of foreign birth or parentage in the cities, less illiteracy was shown in the rural districts than in the urban sections, the percentage being 2.2 for the rural and 3.9 for the urban population. The total of illiteracy for the state was 3.4 compared to 3.7 in 1910. Of the illiterates 24,437 only were of native whites of native parentage, the remainder being foreign born or of foreign born parents, negroes and Asiatics.

In the cities the percentage of illiteracy ran from 4.6 in Chicago to 6.7 in Tipton, and in the counties from 7.8 in Hardin county to 0.4 in Kendall.

Rheumatism for Years Left Him Helpless and Unable to Work—Cured

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers.

BILLY SUNDAY

a hundred of them ever seeing in everyday life.

Newspapers publish divorce and scandal, but it is because in this country divorce and scandal is still something out of the ordinary and out of the ordinary things are news, but that is no excuse for the movies to cater to evil impulses and desires.

The matter of public morals is so vital to the health and prosperity and happiness of any community that it should not be difficult for each state to enact laws prohibiting the exhibition of sex pictures. If a few states set the pace with workable laws the entire country will follow and the unclad vamp will disappear from the earth as completely as the dinosaur.

(Copyright, 1921, N. E. A. Service.)

Tomorrow Billy Sunday will discuss the movies' power for good.

IN MOTHER'S MEDICINE CHEST are standard remedies which have stood the test of time—remedies which their mothers and grandmothers had used before them. Such is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for nearly fifty years has been helping the women of this country to overcome many forms of female ills; merit alone could have stood such a test of time and won such an enviable record.—Adv.

Iowa's Coach Won't Let Strike Prevent Team's Big Contests

Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 18.—Coach Howard Jones of the University of Iowa's football team, is not going to let the threatened railroad strike interfere with his football schedule. He says that if the Iowa team gets marooned at Lafayette, Ind., following its game with Purdue on Oct. 29, it will return to Iowa City in automobiles. Should the railroad strike develop, he also plans to take his team to Minneapolis in automobiles for the game there on Nov. 5 with Minnesota.

Made Ardent Suitor Wait Four Months to Get His First Kiss

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Refusing a $5000 settlement, Miss Margaret C. Lovozorio took the stand yesterday in the second trial of her $50,000 breach-of-promise suit against Amerigo G. Cunzio, and described his ardent love-making.

She made him wait four months for his first kiss, she said, and his proposal of marriage was in the presence of her mother.

The first jury awarded her $30,000, which Judge Britton declared too much, offering her $5000.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Recipe that Anybody can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by eating at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

AMERICAN FEAR OF JAPS SEEN BY BRITISHER

Viscount Bryce Tells of Observations in the U. S.

London, Oct. 18.—Americans are apprehensive of Japanese aggression, Viscount Bryce, former British ambassador at Washington, says in an article in today's London Times, in which he reviews the popular attitude of America towards the conference on the limitation of armaments, as he observed it during his recent visit to the United States. He declares Americans hold the opinion that the Anglo-Japanese treaty encourages Japan to take an aggressive attitude.

Viscount Bryce deprecates the fear of the Japanese, and says, among other things: that the Japanese in California are not numerous enough to be a danger although they are clanish and progressive.

The article throughout is appreciative of the American popular attitude toward the conference on limitation of armaments, but there is a note of uneasiness over the possibility that the conference will not be able to do all that is expected.

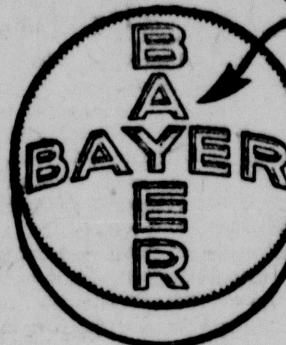

"Mr. Harding's administration has done all it can and deserves success," but if the conference should fail the disappointment of American hopes would be bitter and severe in proportion to their present brightness, and the prospect of international co-operation would be darkened.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c
